

Father

Glen Yoder, Peter Hurtgen

Father, oh the beauty of those hands
That spun the worlds and crafted all of this
Jesus, oh the beauty of that flood
Has filled my veins and lungs with love and song
Spirit, I can feel the comfort in Your kiss
I can feel the peace that blows inside Your fiery winds

No height and no depths below
Can separate us from Your love
Oh the winds of my heart
They may sway and blow
But the love You gave will not be broken
In death in life let the years unfold
But Your love remains
It will not be broken

Father, what can come against us now
For You who did not spare Your only son
Jesus, oh the weight of such a cost
The pain and love and glory of that cross
Spirit, endless as the billows of the sea
I can feel Your love and affections whispered over me

Through all these winds and all these storms
Your love is good and always for me (for me)
