

CALL UPON YOUR NAME

JOHN BARNETT

When the days are dark and filled with thunder
And light'ning strikes in the same place twice
When my soul is weak and thirsts for water
I will call upon Your name, oh God
I will call upon Your name, oh God

My rock, my help in time of need
A mighty, strong deliverer
A fortress for the contrite heart
I will call upon Your name, oh God
I will call upon Your name, oh God

Then mercy flows from heaven's fountain
And shackles fall like autumn leaves
And Your righteousness shines like the morning
You're the God who ransoms and redeems
You're the God who ransoms and redeems
