

COMING ALIVE

BAZI BAKER, JULIAN MCGURTHUR & NIKKI FLETCHER

You came for the broken hearted
You are the lifter of our head
Your love is an endless ocean
Never running dry

You came for the lost and lonely
You are the lover of the weak
You are our joy exploding
Jesus the one we need

Your light breaks through the night
We're coming alive, coming alive
Your name breaks every chain
We're coming alive, coming alive

This is the freedom we've cried for
This is the freedom you died for

You took my place, I don't have to be the same
My guilt your grace, You're breaking every chain

We're coming alive, coming alive
