

SPIRIT COME

ANDY HATHERLY, DAVE MILLER & BERNIE DITIMA

I'm simply waiting on you
I'll listen when you speak
My full attention is on your face
You're the one that I seek

So Spirit come and move in this place
Like a rushing wind, like a mighty wave
Let your glory fall like rain
Here I am, simply waiting on you
Have your way

In your presence everything changes
My heart awakens when you're here
I'm ready let your kingdom break in
As you draw near

Nothing in this world could ever satisfy like you do, like you do
Nothing in this world sets my heart alight, like you do, like you do
Nothing in this world could ever satisfy like you do, like you do
Nothing in this world sets my heart alight, like you do, like you do
