

KNOWN

DAVE MILLER

I am known by the King above all Kings
Nothings hidden you see every little thing
You invite me to come to you just as I am
And be known by the King above all Kings

Sometimes I'm afraid and so i hide
Trying to cover up what's going on inside
With walls that you see right through, God you know me
I am known by the King above all Kings

I will come to you trusting in your kindness Lord
I will listen to who you say I am
I am known, I am known
Fully known, by you

You see me, you know me, you love me, you chose me
I am forever yours
Your grace is enough I am held in your love
I am forever yours
