

You're Carrying Me

Unexpected kindness, I turn my face to You
Surrounded by Your mercy, I'm falling into You

I'm waiting, You're running and I lean into you
My burdens are falling as I lean into you

You're carrying me, You're carrying me
You're carrying me
And I choose to trust You, Lord

I don't know the future, but I place my hope in You
As You call me forward, I'm falling into You

I trust You, I trust You, I trust You
