And herald that the Word had come to us

A baby born into the night

Crying out and breathing life

Naked in the arms of mother's love

5 4
Rejoice, o rejoice
5 4
The Lord has come, the Lord has come
5 4
Rejoice, o rejoice
5 4 1
The Lord has come, the Lord has come, to us

Wise men bowed before the King
To bring prophetic offerings
Could they truly know what they had seen?
So mighty yet so vulnerable
This baby boy would die for all
And rise again to be enthroned as King

5 4 6m 4
Glory to the newborn King, let every heart rejoice
5 4 6m 4
Word made flesh we bow before him, holy Jesus Christ
2m 6m 5 4
Glory to the newborn King, let every heart rejoice
2m 6m 5 4
Sing with choirs of heaven's angels, Jesus glorify
