

To the Edge
Jodie Alexander-Frye

You are in the stillness
You are in the silence
You are in the depths
God, You're with me

You are in the laughter
You are in the sadness
And the space between
God, You're with me

And You see everything that is lost

Falling, falling
Into your arms
I am breaking
But here I find You waiting
You walk with me
To the edge of the emptiness
Right to the edge
Right to the edge
Right to the edge

You are in the darkness
Here in my confusion
In the dead of night
God, you're with me

There at the beginning
You see every ending
I cannot understand
But God, You're with me

And You see everything that is lost

Falling, falling
Into your arms
I am breaking
But here I find you waiting
You walk with me
To the edge of the emptiness

Right to the edge
Right to the edge
Right to the edge

God, You're with me
God, You're with me
God, You're with me
Right to the edge
